A. OVERVIEW

Plaintiff, Jessica Saepoff, alleges:

1. Plaintiff is now, and at all times mentioned in this complaint has been engaged in the common occupation of a Doctor of Dentistry with a principal place of business at 240 NW Gilman Blvd., Ste. 114, Issaquah, Washington 98027, USA which is outside of the United States as defined in the Internal Revenue Code and Regulations.

2. Under Washington laws and the IRC the dental practice is exempt from filing any tax return as stated at 26 C.F.R. §1402(c), plaintiff is described as an "independent contractor" performing professional services for members of the general public.

3. Neither plaintiff nor the Company are engaged in a "TRADE OR BUSINESS", 26 U.S.C. § 7701(a)(26) 'in or within the United States' as defined in the IRC and Regulations per, 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(9) and (10) and 26 C.F.R. §§ 1.3121(e)-1 and 1.3306(j)-1.

4. Dentistry is an occupation of common right and those who perform this service are classified as independent contractors and not "employees".

5. Regardless of the letters sent to JAY RIEHLE, Revenue Officer, he refused to produce any of the documentation demanded but instead passed the case off to another IRS agent for processing.

6. Plaintiff has suffered irreparable injury in plaintiff's pursuit of happiness and property rights, financial loss in the amount of $12,038.02 surrendered by banks and insurance companies to date, without a Court Order, and overdraft fees suffered as a result of the unlawful actions of defendants and plaintiff has no remedy at law within Washington state or the United States as defined in the IRC and Regulations as stated in correspondence with the Internal Revenue Service.

7. Attempting to communicate with the Internal Revenue Service via its agents or Commissioner is an act of futility and a useless waste of time and money because no agent

1 to date has answered the most basic question, “please show me the statute and regulation
2 that makes me liable for the tax”, ‘liability’ being the first and foremost issue that must be
3 determined prior to addressing any other issue.

4 8. No “liability” has been established and plaintiff believes that under the current IRC no
5 “liability” can be proved to tax the earnings derived from an occupation of common right.

6 9. A right secured to plaintiff by state and federal Constitutions cannot be converted into a 7 “privilege” and taxed as such without violating the spirit and intent of those documents.

8 10. Plaintiff is a natural born Citizen of Massachusetts state thus making plaintiff a United 9 States citizen and ‘nonresident alien individual’ to the Territorial jurisdiction of Congress per 10 26 U.S.C. § 2(d), 26 C.F.R. § 1.1-1(a); 1.871(b)(i), 1.861-4(a)(1)(iii)(a).

11 11. Plaintiff relies upon 26 C.F.R. § 1.861-1 Income from sources within the United
12 States. (a) Categories of income. Part 1 (section 861 and following), subchapter N, Chapter
13 1 of the Code, and the regulations thereunder determine the sources of income for purposes
14 of the income tax.

15 12. Plaintiff also relies upon 26 C.F.R. § 1.861-4 Compensation for labor or personal
16 service. (a) In general. (1) Gross income from within the United States includes 17 compensation for labor or personal services performed in the United States irrespective of 18 the residence or the payer, the place in which the contract for service was made, or the place 19 or time of payment; except that such compensation shall be deemed not to be income from 20 sources within the United States, if— (i) The labor or services are performed by a
21 nonresident alien individual temporarily present in the United States for a period or periods
22 not exceeding a total of 90 days during his taxable year.

23 13. Plaintiff also relies upon, 26 C.F.R. § 1.861-4(a)(5) For definition of the term “United 24 States”, when used in a geographical sense, see sections 638 and 7701(a)(9). [bold underline 25 added].

26 14. Plaintiff understands the term “United States” can be used in any one of several senses.
27 (1) it may be merely the name of a sovereign occupying the position analogous to that of 28

1 other sovereigns in the family of nations. (2) It may designate the territory over which the 2 sovereignty of the United States extends, or (3) It may be the collective name of the states
3 which are united by and under the Constitution. Hooven & Allison Co. v. Evatt, 324 U.S.
4 652(1945)

5 15. Plaintiff has never performed any labor or personal services “within” the “United States”
6 under subsection (1) and (2) but does perform services under subparagraph (3) within 7 Washington state which is a member state of the Union of states, which is styled, The 8 United States of America, per the Articles of Confederation and Constitution of the United 9 States of America, 1789-1791 as lawfully amended.

10 16. Plaintiff relies upon 26 C.F.R. § 1.861-4(a)(5) For the definition of the term “United 11 States”, when used in a geographical sense, see section 638 and 7701(a)(9); 638 being the 12 “continental shelf” and 7701(a)(9) United States. The term “United States” when used in a 13 geographical sense includes only the States and the District of Columbia.

14 17. Plaintiff also relies on 26 C.F.R. §§ 31.3121(e)-1 and 3306(j)-1, which reveal that 15 Alaska and Hawaii ceased to be States of the United States when they acquired “statehood” 16 in 1959.

17 18. The “several states” that make up the Union, United States of America are foreign nation
18 States to the District of Columbia and the Territorial jurisdiction established under Article 4, 19 Section 3, Clause 2 under authority of Article 1, Section 8, Clause 17 and confirmed by 20 Congress in the numerous definitions of “State” that omit ‘Alaska’ and ‘Hawaii’, causing 21 plaintiff to have no “gross income” effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or 22 business within the United States, and had no legally mandated liability to the tax imposed
23 in § 1 pursuant to 26 C.F.R. § 871(b).

24 19. The Internal Revenue Service by and through the agents named herein have failed to 25 produce a “liability statute” or a “factual statement” showing by what means plaintiff’s 26 earnings from an occupation of common right are in fact and law “taxable income”, thus 27 establishing “liability”.

5 demands and failed to provide plaintiff with a plain statement of the basis of law and the factual
6 situation that give rise to the alleged liability of plaintiff to the federal personal income tax

8 plaintiff's business and personal accounts in the amount of $12,038.02 or more.

9 35. Defendant, THOMAS A. BYRD, Revenue Officer, failed to produce his "oath of office",
10 "delegation of authority from the Secretary of the Treasury" and a "plain statement of the basis
11 of law and factual situation that gives rise to the alleged liability" in violation of clearly
12 established law.

13 36. Plaintiff has no remedy at law within Washington state and is and will suffer irreparable 14 injury and financial loss if defendants are not enjoined from violating plaintiff pursuit of 15 happiness and fundamental right to exist by engaging in any of the common occupations of life.

17 all times relative to this complaint has been and is employed by the Internal Revenue Service

1 Internal Revenue Code and Regulations promulgated by the Secretary of the Treasury, breached

3 other forms of property and seized money from Company and personal Bank Account in the 4 amount of $12,038.02 without a Court Order or Abstract of Judgment as required by law.

5 41. Defendant, JAY RIEHLE, Revenue Officer, recklessly and intentionally disregarded the 6 plain language of the Internal Revenue Code and Regulations regarding liability for the tax and 7 the definition of the "income" that is taxed and the "source" it must be derived from to make 8 it a taxable event.

9 42. Defendant, JAY RIEHLE, Revenue Officer, failed to provide plaintiff with a plain 10 statement of the basis of law and the factual situation that give rise to the alleged liability of 11 plaintiff to the federal personal income tax causing plaintiff irreparable injury to plaintiff's 12 pursuit of happiness and financial loss due to unauthorized and illegal seizure from plaintiff's
13 business and personal accounts, which have not been shown to be subject to the federal income 14 tax.

15 43. Defendant, JAY RIEHLE, Revenue Officer, failed to produce his "oath of office",
16 "Delegation of Authority from the Secretary of the Treasury" and a "plain statement of the basis
17 of law and factual situation that gives rise to the alleged liability" in violation of clearly
18 established law.

19 44. Plaintiff has no remedy at law within Washington state and has and will continue to suffer
20 irreparable injury and financial loss if defendants are not enjoined from violating plaintiff's pursuit 21 of happiness and fundamental right to exist by engaging in any of the common occupations of 22 life in order to exist.

23 45. Defendant, JOHN KOSKINEN, Commissioner of Internal Revenue, a resident of the 24 District of Columbia, with a mailing address of, Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Internal 25 Revenue Service, Washington, D.C. 20224, who at all times relative to this complaint is

28

1 States, to insure that persons under his direct authority and control are performing their duties
2 and responsibilities according the statues and regulations established by the Secretary of the 3 Treasury.

4 46. Defendant, JOHN KOSKINEN, Commissioner of Internal Revenue, breached the duty owed 5 to plaintiff by knowingly and willingly, after notice was served upon him, allowed or 6 encouraged agents and employees to ignore their duty and create false and misleading documents
7 and take actions not authorized by law to the injury of plaintiff and plaintiff's right to exist 8 causing irreparable injury to plaintiff's fundamental right to earn a living and the pursuance of 9 plaintiff's happiness in an occupation of common right.

10 47. Defendant, JOHN KOSKINEN, Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with his superior
11 knowledge of the Internal Revenue Code and Regulations ignored his duty to perform the 12 functions of his office agreeable to said requirements to the injury of plaintiff's fundamental 13 rights and property.

14 48. Plaintiff has and will continue to suffer irreparable injury in pursuit of happiness and in 15 the property of plaintiff's labor if defendant is not enjoined from violating the statutes and 16 regulations made mandatory upon defendant.

17 49. On or about April 4, 2016, and continuing to the present, defendants wrongfully and 18 unlawfully disregarded their public trust and fiduciary duty owed to plaintiff and demanded other 19 and additional amounts that they knew or should have known could not be due and owing under 20 the Internal Revenue Code by making false claims that plaintiff's earnings from an occupation
21 of common right were and are "income" subject to taxation under federal Internal Revenue
22 Code.

23 50. Defendant's actions are intentional and calculated to cause the most egregious injury to 24 plaintiff, the loss of earnings and damage to plaintiff's lifestyle in an amount equal to or larger 25 than the largest amount claimed by defendants of $159,816.87 or more.

26 51. Plaintiff continues to suffer irreparable injury to plaintiff's pursuit of happiness, property
27 rights in plaintiff's most sacred property 'labor', loss of earnings and damage to business
28

1 relations of $159,816.87 or more.

2 52. On or about May 2, 2016, May 20, 2016 and December 1, 2016, plaintiff has demanded
3 that defendant's refrain from committing the above acts, but defendants have refused and have 4 seized money from bank accounts without due process of law by falsely claiming plaintiff owed
5 over $159,816.87 or more to the United States.

6 53. Defendant, STEVEN TERNER MNUCHIN, Secretary of the Treasury, at all times relative
7 to this complaint is the newly appointed, United States, Secretary of the Treasury, who has 8 willingly assumed the duties and responsibilities of the previous Secretary of the Treasury of

10 54. Defendant, STEVEN TERNER MNUCHIN, Secretary of the Treasury, is under a duty by 11 IRC § 7805 to make all needful rules and regulations to enforce provisions of the IRC relative 12 to Lien, Levy and Assessment.

13 55. Defendants JAY RIEHLE and THOMAS A. BYRD, created or caused to be created
14 'counterfeit securities' and circulated them among several state Government Agencies, Insurance
15 Companies, and Banks claiming authority to Levy under 26 U.S.C. § 6331(b) while omitting
16 subsection (a) identifying the subject class for the Notice of Levy.

17 56. Defendants JAY RIEHLE and THOMAS A. BYRD, knowingly and intentionally omitted
18 subsection (a) of IRC § 6331 in order to defraud plaintiff and interfere with plaintiff's business 19 interests as a means to do further and additional irreparable injury to plaintiff's pursuit of 20 happiness and property rights.

21 57. Plaintiff will suffer continuing irreparable injury if defendants are not jointly enjoined from 22 circulating Counterfeit Securities under color of law without a court order or abstract of 23 judgement as required by the Constitution of Washington and Constitution of the United States
24 of America.

25 58. Plaintiff has been repeatedly denied a meaningful response indicating the actual statute and 26 its enforcing regulation thus denying plaintiff a remedy at law.

27 59. There is no remedy in any administrative agencies because defendants never cite the actual 28

1 statute and regulations that authorizes their actions, but only claim it is in the Internal Revenue
2 Code thus violating their fiduciary and legal duty to plaintiff.

3 60. Attempting to use defendant's administrative remedy is an exercise in futility and would 4 cause additional financial loss and injury without end.

5 61. Defendants' policy and custom is to place administrative liens against private property not 6 subject to such liens and garnish compensation for personal services actually rendered without 7 a judgement from a court of competent jurisdiction or lawful order of a sitting judge.

8 62. Defendants' actions are designed to cause irreparable injury and financial loss while tying 9 up the target in endless demands without regard to due process rights.

10 63. Defendants will continue the same administrative fraud and extortion if not enjoined from 11 doing so.

12 64. As a further result of defendants' acts, plaintiff has sustained damage in the amount of 13 $12,038.02 or more seized by the agents named herein without due process of law.

14 65. Defendants JAY RIEHLE and THOMAS A. BYRD while owing plaintiff a duty to follow
15 the law scrupulously, ignored the plain language of the law and recklessly and intentionally 16 disregarded plaintiff's letters and demands to produce their authority.

17 66. If these acts are permitted to continue, plaintiff will be further damaged in plaintiff's 18 pursuit of happiness, property rights and suffer financial, social and emotional injury of 19 $159,816.87 or more.

20 67. Plaintiff as a direct and proximate cause of defendants' reckless and intentional violation 21 of a known duty and the intentional misapplication of the Internal Revenue Code and 22 Regulations plaintiff has suffered irreparable injury in plaintiff's pursuit of happiness, property 23 rights of plaintiff's labor, business relations and credit worthiness including violation of 24 fundamental right to exist and keep and use the fruits of plaintiff's labor.

25 68. Mere Notice of Tax Lien filed in the public records and with credit reporting agencies is 26 intended by defendants' and the Internal Revenue Service to inflict severe social, emotional and 27 financial injury to plaintiff.

69. That must be the intent as defendants never filed the proper documents that prove the target was provided the "due process" the Constitution requires.

70. Due to defendants' reckless and intentional violation of the Internal Revenue Code and Regulations plaintiff has suffered additional injury and financial loss to plaintiff's business relations in the amount of 250,000 dollars or more.

C. CAUSES OF ACTION

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION:

VIOLATION OF FIRST, NINTH AND FOURTEENTH AMENDMENTS AND UNCONSTITUTIONAL EXTENSION OF A TERRITORIAL EXCISE TAX INTO "STATES" OF THE AMERICAN UNION VIA ADMINISTRATIVE FIAT.

71. Plaintiff incorporates the allegations in paragraphs 1 through 90 as if fully stated herein.

72. Plaintiff is secured by the First and Fourteenth Amendments in the right to work in any of the common occupations of life in the pursuit of happiness.

BYRD, owe plaintiff a duty under the Constitution and laws of the United States in Congress Assembled under Article VI, Section 2 and 3 to support the Constitution and the laws validly enacted by Congress including but not limited to the Federal Income Tax Act at Title 26 United States Code.

75. Defendants, JAY RIEHLE, THOMAS A. BYRD, recklessly and intentionally violated that duty to the legal injury of plaintiff under color of statutes that have no application to Part 1, Section 1, income taxes by falsely claiming that plaintiff's earning from an occupation of common right were in fact "wages" paid for "employment" within the "United States" as defined.

76. Defendants, JAY RIEHLE, THOMAS A. BYRD and JOHN KOSKINEN, jurisdictional area is defined in specific terms within the Internal Revenue Code at, §§ 3121(e); 3306(j) and 7701(a)(9) and (10) and Regulations at 26 CFR §§ 31.3121(e)-1 and 31.3306(j)-1 said jurisdiction cannot be extended by administrative fiat into "states" of the American union as clearly stated.

77. Plaintiff is possessed under these stated secured rights to demand that government officials and agents produce their authority to act, plaintiff has done so in no less than three (3) documents submitted to defendants JAY RIEHLE, THOMAS A. BYRD and JOHN KOSKINEN.

78. Plaintiff has repeatedly asked for the "liability" statute in Title 26 U.S.C. or the Internal Revenue Code, that imposes a "duty" upon plaintiff to report earnings from an occupation of common right as "income" derived from an identified "source" at Sections 861

1 thru 863, defendant have remained silent.

2 79. Plaintiff has repeatedly asked for the production of the "regulation" required to be 3 promulgated by the Secretary of the Treasury under 26 U.S.C. § 7805 that are intended to 4 enforce provisions for "assessment", "lien", "levy" applicable to the Part 1, Subtitle A,
5 Section 1, Tax imposed, to which defendants have remained silent.

6 80. Defendants, JAY RIEHLE, THOMAS A. BYRD and JOHN KOSKINEN, after notice
7 served upon them willingly and intentionally violated their known legal duty to the injury of 8 plaintiff's pursuit of happiness and property rights in plaintiffs' labor in violation of clearly 9 established laws causing plaintiff irreparable injury and financial loss in the amount of 10 $159,816.87 or more.

11
12 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION.

13 VIOLATION OF 5 U.S.C. §§ 702, 706 – UNLAWFUL EXERCISE OF AGENCY
14 AUTHORITY OUTSIDE OF TERRITORIAL JURISDICTION.

15
16 81. Plaintiff incorporates the allegations in paragraphs 1 through 90 as if fully stated herein.

17 82. Defendants JAY RIEHLE and THOMAS A. BYRD, Revenue Officers failed to produce
18 a Delegation of Authority as required under IRC § 7608(a)(1) for "any of the criminal 19 provisions of the internal revenue laws, any other criminal provisions of law relating to 20 internal revenue for the enforcement of which the Secretary is responsible, or any other law
21 for which the Secretary has delegated investigatory authority to the Internal Revenue Service, 22 is, in the performance of his duties, authorized to perform the functions described in 23 paragraph (2)".

24 83. IRC § 7608(b)(2)(A) simply does not authorize any IRS agent or officer to execute or 25 serve any individual domiciled within the external boundary of the several states of the 26 American Union, outside of federal territory, with a summons or other process in the 27 absence of sufficient evidence to show that the target of such process is actually liable for 28

1 the particular tax attempting to be collected.

2 84. Plaintiff has requested a "plain statement of the basis of law and the factual situation
3 that gives rise to any deficiency" claimed by the Internal Revenue Service. To date
4 defendant's have remained silent.

5 85. The Notice of Levy issued by JAY RIEHLE and THOMAS A. BYRD, Revenue
6 Officers, does not contain a case number or other order signed by a sitting judge of a United 7 States District Court having jurisdiction to act upon citizens and property located within 8 Washington state.

9 86. If defendants claim that Washington state is a State of the United States, such claim
10 does violence to 26 C.F.R. §§ 31.3121(e)-1, 3306(j)-1 and the Congressional Act creating the 11 Social Security Tax, Unemployment Tax and the employment taxes under Section 3401(a)
12 which appear to be "Territorial" in the absence of a definition of "income" that could 13 include "compensation for service actually performed" in the course of plaintiff exercising 14 the common fundamental right to exist.

15 87. The Congressional Record reveals that Social Security and Unemployment were 16 enacted under Congress's Territorial authority at Article 4, Section 3, Clause 2 and supported 17 as such by the Supreme Court of the United States. See. Cincinnati Soap Co. v. United 18 States, 301 U.S. 308 (1937); Helvering v. Davis, 301 U.S. 619 (1937).

19 88. The "tax" was declared to be a valid "excise" or "duty" upon the relation of 20 "employment" as defined by Congress and contained in the IRC and Title 26 United States
21 Code.

22 89. Defendants JAY RIEHLE, THOMAS A. BYRD and JOHN KOSKINEN owe plaintiff a 23 duty to operate within the confines established by Congress and the court must respect the 24 law as written and not extend it by judicial fiat, or in other words "create law from the 25 bench".

26 90. Both cases cited above contain the same language, "These taxes are not applicable to 27 certain kinds of employment, including agricultural labor, domestic services, services for the 28

1 national or state governments, and services performed by persons who have attained the age
2 of 65 years.

3 91. It is apparent from the language above and that contained in the IRC under 4 §§31.3121(e)-1, 3306(j)-1 and 7701(a)(9) and (10) that individuals carrying on business in 5 any of the common occupations of life are likewise "exempt", "excluded", or not "subject
6 to" the taxes identified in the IRC relating to "employment" as defined therein.

7 92. Defendants JAY RIEHLE, THOMAS A. BYRD and JOHN KOSKINEN as well as the 8 Banks and Insurance Companies who surrendered plaintiff's property to defendants without a
9 valid court order and abstract of judgment as required under Schultz I, 395 F.3d 563(2005)
10 and Schultz II, 413 F.3d 297(2005), and the Fair Debt Collection Procedures Act, (FDCPA),
11 28 U.S.C. § 3201 and the pre- or postjudgment collection tools provided under subchapters
12 B or C of the FDCPA, 28 U.S.C. §§ 3101-3206 violate the intent of Congress and cause 13 irreparable injury to plaintiff's pursuit of happiness, property rights in an amount equal to or 14 greater than $159,816.87 or more.

15 93. The requirements stated hereinabove obligate defendants to obtain a judgement or order
16 from a United States District Court prior to taking any punitive action against an individual 17 claimed to owe a debt to the United States via the Internal Revenue Code and Regulations.

18 94. Plaintiff carries on a private business under state laws of Washington and outside of the 19 Territorial jurisdiction defined in the Internal Revenue Code which services are either
20 "exempt", "excepted" or "not subject to" the taxes imposed via the Internal Revenue Code.

21 95. It is evident that defendants' are acting in the total absence of jurisdiction and in the 22 absence of required due process procedure intended to protect plaintiff from abusive
23 activities of IRS agents and officers causing plaintiff irreparable injury to plaintiff's pursuit
24 of happiness and property rights in an amount equal to or greater than $159,816.87 or more.

25 26 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

27 TRESPASS UPON RIGHTS AND PROPERTY.

96. Plaintiff incorporates the allegations in paragraphs 1 through 90 as if fully stated herein.

97. Plaintiff's right to exist and earn a living are established and well recognized throughout the court system and our laws. Plaintiff is possessed of the absolute right to exist.

98. The Internal Revenue Code and its enforcing Regulations contain exemptions and exceptions from terms defined in them such as "wages", "employment" and "State" which are binding upon defendants operating under the Executive branch of government.

99. Plaintiff has asked for and been denied the most basic elements of "due process" such as "notice" and "opportunity to be heard".

100. Defendants JAY RIEHLE, THOMAS A. BYRD and JOHN KOSKINEN after Notice served upon them failed to produce Delegations of Authority required under IRC §7608(b)(1) and (2) and failed to produce a plain statement of the basis of law and factual situation that gives rise to the deficiency.

101. Defendants, JAY RIEHLE, THOMAS A. BYRD, JOHN KOSKINEN and each Insurance Company and banking institution owe plaintiff a duty to investigate concerns expressed and not ignore requirements of the laws referred to by plaintiff and simply turn over money or other property without a valid court order. Plaintiff is not a slave or dependent of the federal government or any agency or instrumentality thereof or the District of Columbia.

102. Plaintiff has the right to challenge - prior to trial - criminal prosecution on separation of powers and / or federalism principles, including by injunction, when the executive branch is acting in direct violation of an express and clear restriction passed by Congressional legislation such as are contained in the IRC, Regulations and court cases cited. See, United States v. McIntosh, 2016 WL 4363168, at *8 (9th Cir. Aug. 16, 2016).

103. Plaintiff is possessed of all rights secured by the Constitution of Washington and the United States of America and all Rights at common law which formally belonged to the King of England by his prerogative prior to the Revolution. Among these are the right to 1 life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

2 104. Defendants are under a fiduciary and / or sworn duty not to violate plaintiff's rights
3 and when they do so without authority of law and in direct violation of statutes and 4 regulations established to protect these right they lose their qualified immunity and are liable
5 in their individual capacity for the damages inflicted.

6 105. Plaintiff has been irreparably injured in business relations and suffered property loss of 7 $12,038.02 or more as a result of defendants action.

9 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

10 TAKING PROPERTY WITHOUT DUE PROCESS.

11 106. Plaintiff incorporates the allegations in paragraphs 1 through 90 as if fully stated
12 herein.

13 107. Defendants JAY RIEHLE, THOMAS A. BRYD, JOHN KOSKINEN, after notice was 14 served upon them requiring the production of documents, including but not limited to, oath
15 of office, oath to support and defend the Constitution of the United States of America,
16 Delegation of Authority from the Secretary of the Treasury, plain statement of the basis of
17 law and factual situation relied upon to establish "liability", defendants neglected or refused
18 to provide said document and instead proceeded to file Notice of Levy Form 668-A(ICS).

19 108. Defendant JAY RIEHLE, Revenue Officer, signed Notice of Levy, Form 668-A(ICS)
20 dated 06/01/2016 and mailed them to WELLS FARGO BANK, Writs & Levies Processing
21 MAC#Y1372, P.O. Box 1416, Charlotte, NC 28201-1416; BANK OF AMERICA NA, Legal 22 Ord Processing DE5-024002-08, P.O. Box 15047, Wilmington, DE 19850-5047, without 23 complying with the statutory requirement designed to protect plaintiff from abusive IRS
24 tactics under the Fair Debt Collection Procedures Act, 15 U.S.C § 1692(a), Tax Division
25 Judgment Collection Manual, and IRC §§6321, 7402, 7403. These documents claim that a
26 debt exists between plaintiff and the United States in the amount of $159,816.87 in the clear 27 absence of proven personal liability or due process of law.

1 109. Defendant, THOMAS A. BYRD, Revenue Officer, signed Notice of Levy, Form 668-
 2 A(ICS) dated 12/31/2016 and mailed them to, GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES HEALTH

 16 companies and banks would rely on the Notice of Levy to the legal injury of plaintiff in the 17 amount of $154,110.73, or more while defendant, THOMAS A. BYRD, Revenue Officer, 18 knew or should have known these forms are neither legal nor complete without a court order 19 and abstract of judgement.

20 110. Defendant's action was taken without complying with the first element of jurisdiction, 21 i.e. "Liability" for the tax alleged to be due and owing. Plaintiff has repeatedly requested to 22 be shown the statute within the IRC or Title 26 United States Code that places a "duty"
 23 upon plaintiff to pay an excise tax upon plaintiff's right to the pursuit of happiness of 24 selling plaintiffs labor in the open market, a fundamental right according to the Supreme 25 Court of the United States.

26 111. An 'excise tax' cannot be applied to the property of 'labor' of plaintiff without 27 violating the provision of the Constitution of the United States of America relating to 28

1 'apportionment of direct taxes according to the numbers' of free inhabitants in each of the 2 50 states.

3 112. Defendant, JOHN KOSKINEN, Commissioner of Internal Revenue, ignored his duty to 4 train individuals in the employ of the Internal Revenue Service and allowed, JAY RIEHLE,
5 and THOMAS A. BYRD, Revenue Officers to exceed their delegated authority, violate the 6 intent of Congress and the Constitution of the United States to the legal injury of plaintiff
7 causing irreparable injury to plaintiff's pursuit of happiness and damage to plaintiff's most 8 sacred property, labor in the amount of $159,816.87 or more and direct economic damages

10 113. Defendants, PREMERA BLUE CROSS, DELTA DENTAL OF WASHINGTON,
11 AETNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, BANK OF AMERICA NA, and WELLS FARGO
12 BANK NA, owe plaintiff a higher duty to protect plaintiff's accounts from being seized by 13 third parties absent the required due process of law and lawful process issued by a Court of

16 AETNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, BANK OF AMERICA NA, and WELLS FARGO
17 BANK NA, breached the higher duty by surrendering property belonging to plaintiff in the 18 absence of lawful process emanating from a court of competent jurisdiction, i.e., a Court
19 Order and Abstract of Judgement.

20 115. Defendants, PREMERA BLUE CROSS, DELTA DENTAL OF WASHINGTON,
21 AETNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, BANK OF AMERICA NA, and WELLS FARGO
22 BANK NA, caused irreparable injury and financial loss in an amount equal to or greater 23 than $12,038.02 or more.

24
25 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION.

26 CREATION AND CIRCULATION OF COUNTERFEIT SECURITY

27 114. Plaintiff incorporates the allegations in paragraphs 1 through 90 as if fully stated
28

1 herein.

2 115. 18 U.S. Code § 471 - Obligations or securities of United States. "Whoever, with intent
3 to defraud, falsely makes, forges, counterfeits, or alters any obligation or other security of 4 the United States, shall be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than 20 years, or 5 both." (June 25, 1948, ch. 645, 62 Stat. 705; Pub. L. 103-322, title XXXIII, § 330016(1)(K),
6 Sept. 13, 1994, 108 Stat. 2147; Pub. L. 107-56, title III, § 374(b), Oct. 26, 2001, 115 Stat.
7 340.)

8 116. 18 U.S. Code § 472 - Uttering counterfeit obligations or securities. "Whoever, with 9 intent to defraud, passes, utters, publishes, or sells, or attempts to pass, utter, publish, or sell,
10 or with like intent brings into the United States or keeps in possession or conceals any 11 falsely made, forged, counterfeited, or altered obligation or other security of the United 12 States, shall be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than 20 years, or both." (June 13 25, 1948, ch. 645, 62 Stat. 705; Pub. L. 103-322, title XXXIII, § 330016(1)(K), Sept. 13, 14 1994, 108 Stat. 2147; Pub. L. 107-56, title III, § 374(c), Oct. 26, 2001, 115 Stat. 340.)

15 117. Defendants JAY RIEHLE, THOMAS A. BYRD and JOHN KOSKINEN, after notice
16 was served upon them requiring the production of documents, including but not limited to,
17 oath of office, oath to support and defend the Constitution of the United States of America,
18 Delegation of Authority from the Secretary of the Treasury, plain statement of the basis of
19 law and factual situation relied upon to establish "liability", defendants neglected or refused
20 to provide said document and instead proceeded to file Notice of Levy Form 668-A(ICS)
21 claiming that plaintiff "owed a debt to the United States" which equates to a "security" as 22 defined at 18 U.S.C. § 2311.

23 118. Defendants JAY RIEHLE, and THOMAS A. BYRD while under a duty to follow the 24 IRC and regulations promulgated by the Secretary of the Treasury, ignored their duty and 25 instead created a "Notice of Levy" Form 668-A(ICS) with the intent to circulate the Notice
26 of Levy as if it was in fact and law a "levy" as described at IRC § 6332(a)(d) & (e) while 27 they knew or should have known plaintiff could not meet statutory and regulatory 28

1 requirements of such action without the existence of "liability".

2 119. Plaintiffs right to the pursuit of happiness is not subject to the provisions of the 3 Internal Revenue Code or any regulation the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe. 26
4 C.F.R. § 31.861-8T. 120. Plaintiffs fundamental right to exist and earn a living cannot be 5 made subject to an excise by Congress, the States or any combination of the above by 6 legislative, executive or judicial fiat in light of the Constitutional prohibition against "direct 7 taxes" at Article 1, Section 2, Clause 3, without 'apportionment'.

8 121. Defendants, JAY RIEHLE, THOMAS A. BYRD and JOHN KOSKINEN, intentionally
9 and while under a duty to plaintiff, failed to provide the basis of law and factual situation
10 that would authorize the Secretary or his delegate to file a Levy under authority of IRC §
11 6332 upon rights and property of United States Citizens who maintain an abode upon land
12 of a Union state, Washington.

13 122. Defendants failed to establish "liability" which is the first element that must be proved 14 before a "levy" or "lien" can attach to any property or right to property thus making all of 15 the Notice of Levy created by defendants "counterfeit securities" which is a violation of the 16 federal criminal code at 18 U.S.C. §§471, 472 and 2311.

17 123. Defendant's action are without a basis of law or factual situation that can attach to a 18 United States Citizen who maintains an abode upon land of one of the Union states, 19 Washington, "outside" of the District of Columbia and jurisdiction of Congress titled the 20 "United States".

21 124. Defendants' reckless and intentional creation of "counterfeit securities" caused 22 irreparable injury to plaintiff's pursuit of happiness and enjoyment of plaintiff's most sacred 23 property in an amount equal to or greater than $159,816.87 or more.

24 25 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

26 BREACH OF FIDUCIARY DUTY

22 "No man in this country is so high that he is above the law. No officer of the 24 government, from the highest to the lowest, are creatures of the law and are 25 bound to obey it. It is the only supreme power in our system of government the citizens as against each other, but also upon rights in controversy between them and the government" [bold emphasis added]

22 23 D. RELIEF SOUGHT.

24 WHEREFORE, plaintiff demands judgment for:

25
 26 1. Defendants and each of them named herein above and the agency they are employed

4 private or public company.

5 7. Damages against defendants equal to the fraudulent claims of amount alleged to be 6 owing to the United States without any basis of law or fact in the amount of $159,816.87
